New planning assistant

The Wilmington Planning Board has a new intern working as planning assistant. David Boutin holds a masters degree in community planning from the University of Rhode Island at Kingston. His undergraduate degree is in economics, from Northeastern. He is a native of Portland, Maine.

State approves lights at West Street

The long-awaited traffic lights at the intersection of West and Lowell Streets in Wilmington have been approved by the Massachusetts Department of Public Works (DPW).

Town Manager Sterling Morris has received written notification of the approval from the DPW. He said that an engineer is now preparing bid specifications for the traffic light system.

The lights were a project of Rep. James Miceli, who worked with Raymond Rourke of Lowell, undersecretary of transportation.

The state had repeatedly denied the town's requests for lights at the intersection, because of its proximity to access ramps to Route 93. The official reason was that the lights could cause a back-up onto the interstate highway.

The intersection is the meeting point for traffic coming into Wilmington on Route 129 with traffic from the industrial area off West Street near the Woburn line. Many accidents have occurred in the intersection through the years.

The town manager declined to estimate how many months would be needed to complete the project. He did say, though, that the town would seek state funding for the stop light system.

Curtain rises this weekend on Spotlighters' "Hello Dolly"

Zany crew

The waiters' scene in "Hello, Dolly" is a maze of flying arms and legs, with the 'waiters' crossing the stage in a zany dance. Here it is practiced by Donald Baillargeon, Frank Duggan, John Gallagher, Bill Desharnais, Jim Girgenti, Doug MacDonald (hidden), and Jim Hall. Also in the scene but not shown is Judy Morris.

Tickets are going fast for the Spotlighters' June 9, 10 and 11 production of the much-loved musical "Hello Dolly," but Ticket Chairman Ann Whitney says there are still plenty of seats left for all three nights.

"Hello Dolly" will be presented this Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights at Wilmington High School. Curtain time will be 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and 7 p.m. on Sunday.

The show, which ran for over six years on Broadway and won a New York Drama Critics Circle citation for best musical, contains some of the best-known tunes of its era. The story concerns the matchmaking and meddling of a certain opportunist named Dolly. It winds up with her making the best match of all for herself.

At a special Wednesday evening performance, the Spotlighters will entertain 40 students from the Boston Guild for the Blind. This performance is not open to the public.

Tickets for the other three performances are now on sale. For information call 658-3948 or 658-4586. Tickets will also be sold at the door on the nights of the performances.

Michelle Cormier crowned Miniature Miss

Michelle Cormier, a proud and happy eight-year-old, was crowned Miniature Miss recently at the Massachusetts Cinderella Girl Pageant.

As a winner of the competition, which was held May 14 and 15 at the Ramada Inn in Salem, New Hampshire, Michelle will represent Massachusetts in a week-long International Pageant to be held in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, in August. Accompanying her will be her mother Mrs. Nancy Cormier.

In the state competition, Michelle modeled a party dress and sportswear outfit, executed a baton-twirling routine and participated along with other contestants in a song and dance production number.

Michelle, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Cormier of 46 Park Street, has many interests. She has studied baton-twirling at the Judy Groves School, ballet and modern jazz at the Donna Miceli School of Dance, drama at the Children's Drama Workshop and figure skating lessons at the Wilmington Figure Skating Club. She is also learning to play the saxophone.

Michelle is a third-grade student at the Woburn Street School, where she has maintained a perfect attendance record for the past three years.

Committee set to probe vandalism

Assistant Town Manager Peter Holtzmeister and Douglas Anderson, vice-principal of the Shawsheen Elementary School, will be co-chairmen of the newly-organized Vandalism Study Committee in Wilmington.

The ad hoc committee was appointed recently by members of the Board of Selectmen and the School Committee to try to find some method to curb the upward-spiralling costs of vandalism in the town.

Other members of the committee include Phil Fenton, the newest member of the School Committee; Joseph Burke, a probation officer of the Lowell District Court who lives on Cunningham Street; and Selectman John Imbimbo.

Also on the committee will be representatives from the police department, the school Parent Advisory Committees, and the school custodians.

School Committee Chairman Lester White said that the study would be "two-pronged." One aspect of it, he said, would involve immediate preventative measures, while the other would look more deeply into the causes of the youths behavior.

He said an initial meeting was being planned for later this month at which he, Town Manager Sterling Morris and Superintendent of Schools Walter Pierce would present the committee with a list of areas they believe need study.

No serious injuries in cycle mishap

A motorcycle and a bicycle collided on Aldrich Road last Thursday in what could have been a tragic accident.

Fortunately, neither cyclist was seriously injured.

Ten-year-old Douglas Clark of 4 Hardin Street, Wilmington, was rushed to Winchester Hospital by Fire Fighters Thomas Robbins and Donald Ahearn. Treated there for head injuries, he was discharged by the hospital Monday morning and is reported to be progressing very well.

Michael Jenkins, the operator of the Honda 350 motorcycle, was not injured in the collision. Jenkins, who lives at 14 Brentwood Avenue in Wilmington, was operating under a motorcycle learner's permit.

Witnesses at the scene offered conflicting versions about how the accident had taken place. Some said

Clark was at the side of the road when he was struck by the motorcycle, others said he was riding in the road.

Clark's mother said more serious injuries were prevented by the fact that the Honda did not hit her son, but struck the frame of his bicycle instead.

The accident happened at 4:35 p.m.

Grand jury to review Tallini shooting

At a hearing held Thursday, May 25 in Woburn District Court, probable cause was found for the trial of Mrs. Lillamae Tallini in connection with the shooting death of her husband.

On April 18, Anthony Tallini of 41 Brentwood Avenue was fatally wounded in the cellar of his home by two blasts from a 20 gauge shotgun.

The shooting, which occurred on the 33-year-old former carpenter's birthday, followed an argument between the couple. Mrs. Tallini is alleged to have shot her husband after he followed her to the basement where she had fled to seek refuge.

She was arrested by police the same day at the home of her sister, also of Brentwood Avenue.

At the May 25 hearing, Judge Ganella ordered bail reduced to $10,000. The case will now be reviewed by the grand jury to determine whether or not Mrs. Tallini will stand trial for murder.

Headstart deadline June 16

The Wilmington Public Schools will again conduct a Summer Headstart Program for children who will be attending kindergarten or elementary school for the first time in the fall.

Present Office of Economic Opportunity guidelines require that children from economically disadvantaged families be given first priority for enrollment.

The program lasts six weeks (July 3-August 11) with daily classes running from 8 a.m. to noon. Children are transported to and from the center by bus.

Also provided on a daily basis is a breakfast-time snack in the morning and a hot lunch before dismissal at noon.

For more information, call Headstart Director Richard DeRosas, at 658-3494, any school day.

The deadline for applications is June 16.

Detours

With good summer weather here, it is time to close the roads and open up the detours, so the saying goes. Wilmington has its share of detours.

Harris Street, off Burlington Avenue, will be closed during the next two weeks, to allow the installation of a water main that will connect the town's two standpipes, on Kelly Hill and on Hillside Way.

Traffic seeking access to areas usually served by Harris Street will have to approach by way of Canal Street, off Shawshen Avenue. Harris Street may be open during the night while construction continues.

The Butters Row bridge is again closed, to allow crews to re-string the bridge. Earlier this year, the bridge was closed when the sewer contractor had cut through the approach to the bridge. That cut was restored after it became apparent that the contractor would be delayed in installing that portion of the sewer. Residents of the area had petitioned to have the bridge re-opened.

The Water Department has postponed work on Chestnut Street until the Butters Row bridge is open again.

Reading Savings holds election

Three new corporators and a new trustee were elected recently by the corporators of Reading Savings Bank at their annual meeting.

Joining the Board of Trustees is George W. Cochrane 3rd of 26 County Road, Reading.

New corporators elected are Elizabeth W. Klepels of 68

Tennysen Road, Bayard R. Lincoln of 13 Baldwin Street, and Linda C. Nordberg of 32 Pennsylvania Avenue, all of Reading.

Reading Savings Bank is a Mutual Savings Bank, organized in 1891 to serve the people living in the Reading, North Reading and Wilmington area. In addition to the main office at 133 Haven Street, Reading Savings maintains a branch office at 386 Main Street in Wilmington.

Mutual Savings Banks are managed by a Board of Trustees. The trustees do not share in the profits from the earnings of the bank. All earnings are distributed to depositors in the form of interest, after paying operating expenses, taxes, and setting aside additions to essential reserves.

Deborah Olson to compete in beauty pageant

Deborah Clare Olson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Olson of 26 Kenwood Avenue, has been selected to be a finalist in the 1978 Miss Massachusetts National Teenager Pageant which will be held later this month.

The 18-year-old Wilmington High School senior will compete with teenagers from all over Massachusetts Saturday, June 24, in the official state preliminary at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, the host college.

The winner of the event will receive an all-expense-paid trip to compete in the Miss National Teenager Pageant which will be held in August in Atlanta, Georgia. She will also receive a $4,000 scholarship to Johnson and Wales College, a full-tuition scholarship to Barbizon International, a self-portrait from the Gil-Peter Studio, a cash scholarship and many other prizes.

Contestants will be judged on poise and personality, scholastic achievements and leadership and on appearance.

On Friday, June 23, in a special Essay Program open to the public, each contestant will recite a 100-word essay on the theme of the pageant, "What's Right About America."

Contestants will also be requested to participate in the Volunteer Community Service Program of the pageant and will receive a Mini-Modeling Charm Course during the pageant weekend.

Deborah is being sponsored in the competition by Jeralyn Builders and Builder Ralph E. Newhouse.

Register now for story hours

Now is the time to sign up for four and five-year-olds for one of the six weekly 45-minute story hours to be conducted at the Wilmington Memorial Library again this summer by Mrs. Arlene Ten Dyke.

The programs, like all library-sponsored programs are free to the public. They feature the best in books and stories for the young in order to introduce children to the richness of their cultural heritage and to the world of materials and experiences available at the library. For many, it is the first time of exposure to others their age in a formal situation and a place where they learn to listen and to take turns. Younger brothers and sisters play and visit the children's Room and mothers chat together while waiting for the older four and five-year-olds who attend story hour in the library's Conference Room. Choosing books for all to take home afterwards is one of the high points of the day.

This summer the following groups have been scheduled to run between July 3 and August 17 (due to the July Fourth holiday, the first meeting for Tuesday groups will be on Monday July 3 so that they may participate in the full seven-week program):

Tuesdays 9:30 and 10:45; Wednesdays 9:30 and 10:45; Thursdays 9:30 and 10:45.

As popular times are quickly filled and because groups must be limited to 22 children, it would be wise to register early. For further information, call the Children's Department at 658-2967.

Wilmington man aids Project Decide

David C. Gardner of Arlene Avenue, Wilmington, traveled to Germany recently to offer his expertise in the field of education to the Defense Department.

Gardner, who is Chairman of the Department of Business and Career Education at Boston University's School of Education, was flown to the Darmstadt Career Center to offer technical assistance to Project DECIDE.

A model program for the Defense Department's dependent school system, Project DECIDE offers career exploration for normal and special needs children.

Gardner, who holds an Ed.D. degree from both Boston University and Indiana University of Pennsylvania, recently directed a federal grant to Boston University for a project to aid handicapped students in vocational schools.

In 1977, he was appointed to the Advisory Panel of the Non-Traditional Occupations Projects for Women.

Bloodmobile Tuesday

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the K of C Hall, 2066 Main Street, Tewksbury, from 2 p.m. to 7:45 p.m. Tuesday. William McCarthy, K of C chairman, will be in charge.

Eighteen appointments in each 15 minute interval can be accepted, starting at 2 p.m. Donors are asked to call Marge and Debra, at 851-5655. Those wishing transportation should advise of their needs when making appointments. Transportation appointments are made so the donor will arrive 10 minutes ahead of scheduled time.

Any donor eligible for a gallon pin or greater should advise the registrars, so that a pin will be available on Tuesday.

Walk-ins will be welcome, though appointments are appreciated, to aid the staff in their program.

Volunteer Chairman Cathy Manion advises that more volunteers are needed to staff the bloodmobile. Typists are especially needed. Call Cathy at 851-4248.

The Fourth of July weekend is not far away. This is the first bloodmobile of the summer season. Volunteers can help to stock up needs for the holiday weekend. Information on requirements may be had from the VRN Chairman, Peggy Sulvester, 851-2995.

Persons wishing to join the Tewksbury Blood Committee should call Jean Russell, at 658-6925.

Junior High track

Tewksbury fourth in MVC meet

The Tewksbury Junior High track team completed its season last week by beating Billerica's Marshall Middle School in the Shawheen Tech seventh and eighth grade invitational, 99-25 1/2; lost a tough luck meet to Andover West, 50-54; defeated Austin Prep, 67-37 and ended its season with a good fourth place finish in the third Annual Junior High MVC Conference Meet at Andover Saturday morning.

The Redmen won every event in the Shawheen Invitational with David Collins running an excellent 2.22.3 in the 800 yard run; Paul Roy finishing with an excellent third place finish in the triple jump with a 35'4" jump; Jimmy Cayford setting a school eighth grade record in the 440 yard run with a 60.7 time and Frank Fay winning the 100 and 220 yard runs.

Mike Dascoli took the hurdles and the high jump; Richard Bradanick, the shot put and discus and Mark Indelicato the triple jump and long jump. Dan Silk was the winner of the mile, a new event for him.

A messed up relay hand-off in the Andover West meet capped a day of tough breaks for Tewksbury.

The Austin Prep Meet gave Tewksbury coach Dennis McGadden the opportunity to allow his performers to try other events. The best race of the day came between Paul Roy and an Austin runner for third in the mile, as Roy came from almost 80 yards behind to nip his opponent at the wire.

The biggest meet of the year was the 10 team Junior High MVC Conference Meet. Chelmsford's McCarthy Junior High won six of the meet's 12 events and finished first with 115 points.

Second place went to Methuen with 70 points followed in succession by Andover West (61), Tewksbury (53), Andover East (29), Austin Prep (21), Chelmsford's Moses Parker (18), Dracut and Central Catholic (2), and Greater Lowell, (1).

Outstanding Tewksbury performances came from Jeff West, who won the discus and set a new conference record while doing so; Tim Niven, who broke Jimmy Stronach's 1972 mile run school record of 4:52.3 with a second place finish and a fast 4:50.8 time; Mark Indelicato, again setting a school record in the triple jump with a leap of 37'11"; Joe Bernardi running a super 57.7 440 yard run; Jim Cayford tying the school seventh grade 220 yard dash record with a 26.8 time; and Dan Silk, setting a school eighth grade 880 yard record with a 2:28.3 time. Jeff West's discus record throw was 120'9".

Coach McGadden's crew finished the season with an 8-4 overall record and a 6-3 MVC Conference record. This was the Junior High's 10th track and field season giving McGadden a 10 year record of 76 wins - 20 losses and one tie, and 10 consecutive winning seasons as the building block toward the high school's track teams.

Highlights were Bobby Donahue's throw in the shot put and Glenn Plant's 17'4 1/2" win in the long jump.

Frank Fay upset teammate Mark Indelicato in the triple mump with a personal best jump of 37'2" and Mike Dascoli broke the eighth grade low hurdles record with a 16.2 time. Ray Roane recorded a personal best by a half a second in the hurdles with a 15.3 time.

At least seven area residents will be celebrating on June 14, including: Jo O'Neill of High Street, Wilmington; Ruth Bennett of Henry J. Drive, Tewksbury who will be celebrating for the 17th time; Gary Blonigen of Crescent Street, Wilmington; Lorraine Burt of Carson Avenue; Evan DeWire of Dand Drive, WHO WILL BE EIGHT YEARS OLD; Ellen Dranson of Woburn Street; Clesson Downs of Shawheen Street, Tewksbury.

Billy Flynn of Foster Road, Tewksbury will face a birthday cake glowing with five candles on June 15. Billy will share his special day with Pat Fitzpatrick of Allen Park Drive, Wilmington; Janet Yankowski of Middlesex Avenue; Arthur Carl of Broad Street and Kyra Lee of Maureen Drive, Tewksbury. Kyra Lee will be celebrating for the 18th time.

Audrey Winston of Oakdale Road, Wilmington will turn another page on June 16 and will share greetings with Annette Burns of South Oliver Street, Tewksbury and Lynn Lacey of West Street, Wilmington.

Golden Agers

Members of Wilmington's Golden Age Club on the current birthday list are: Stanley Cady of Church Street and Mary Quandt of Pershing Street on June 14 and Florence Hyde of Lloyd Road on June 15.

Anniversaries

If the records at hand are correct, the anniversary star this week goes to the Daniel MacDonald's of Burlington Avenue, Wilmington who will dance the Anniversary Waltz for the 51st time on June 12.

Following closely behind the MacDonald's are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Darling Sr. of Eames Street, Wilmington who will be celebrating for the 48th time - also on June 12.

June 15 will mark the 20th anniversary of Daniel and Sarah Cosman of Lawrence Street, Wilmington; the 21st anniversary of Elaine and Chuck Keough of Marcia Road and the 10th anniversary of the Harold Murray's of Arnold Road.

It was last year!!!

On May 18, 1977, this column carried an item stating that William Manning, Jr. of Lloyd Road, Wilmington had been awarded his BA degree in history-psychology from Albion College in Michigan.

That item was correct. Bill received his degree in graduation exercises which took place at Albion on May 7 and his parents, the William Manning's Sr., were on hand to witness the event.

Last week, for reasons known only to the college, Albion chose to send us a notice saying that Bill had received his degree in history this year - not so!!! Bill has had that history degree (as well as the psychology) in his back pocket for over a year now!!!

From the fire log

Members of Wilmington's Fire Department answered 30 calls for assistance between May 29 and June 4 including: Fourteen ambulance runs; one false alarm; nine brush fires; three service calls; one car fire; one gas wash and one dumpster fire.

Danny's coming home!!

Daniel J. Styles Jr. of 18 Jones Ave., Wilmington is due home in a couple of weeks from Elmendorf Airforce Base, Alaska where he has been an Airforce fireman for two years....Welcome home Dan!!!

Little League Highlights

Stearns, MacInnis lead Orioles

Wayne Stearns and Robbie MacInnis combined for a two-hitter Saturday night as the Orioles defeated the Pilots in Tewksbury American Little League action.

Stearns chalked up his sixth victory, walking one and striking out six. He helped his own cause going four for five, including a pair of doubles and an RBI.

MacInnis had his seventh save of the year walking two, striking out six, while collecting a pair of hits.

Mike Bosia went three for three knocking in two runs and Todd Boudreau added a run with his first bas hit of the year.

Paul Laurin had a single and triple with an RBI. Mike Isabelle singled in a run and Steve Synan had a base hit single. Kevin Caulfield slapped a pair of hits.

The Orioles defeated the Padres 17-5 behind the pitching of MacInnis and Stearns last Wednesday night. Dom Rosmarinofski led the batting attack going two for two with two RBI's. Stearns highlighted the game with a double, single and an RBI.

Kevin Caulfield went three for four with an RBI and Kraig Burzlaff belted an RBI single. Robbie MacInnis added a single and Mike Bosia earned two RBI's. Mike Isabelle doubled and Mike Irvine singled.

Fowler contributed three hits toward the Padres' cause which included a double and an RBI. Kelly doubled; Campbell singled and Perivolitis singled to round out the attack.

WHS tips TMHS

The Wilmington High softball squad wound up the 1978 season in fine style last week with a 9-8 win over Tewksbury at the Livingston Street Field.

Cheryl Cushing paced the winning attack with a two run double in the sixth inning that snapped a 6-6 deadlock.

Cheryl later scored the winning run on a passed ball.

Coach Bonnie Robert's team and ace pitcher Linda Doherty fell behind 6-3, but the Redwomen came back before a double by Joan Welch in the fifth inning sent two WHS runs across.

Shortstop Sandy Peters paced the home club's attack with a single and a double while Diane Donovan chipped in with a two run single in the fifth frame.

Sophomore Sue Rowe bested Doherty on the mound to give coach Jan Garipay's club its fifth MVC win. Tewksbury finished at 8-6 in the MVC - 11-6 overall.

Tewksbury routs Westford 11-5

The TMHS girls romped over Westford 11-3 last week in non league action. Sherry Libby, Tina Coffin and Doherty paced the Tewksbury attack with two hits apiece. Donovan had a pair of RBI's while Kelly Krugh drove home three. Doherty won her ninth game of the spring.

A program which will prepare widowed persons over 60 to offer support and encouragement to newly-widowed people is currently in the planning stage.

The "Widowed-to-Widowed" program, sponsored by the Mystic Valley Community Mental Health Center, will serve the six towns of Arlington, Burlington, Lexington, Winchester, Woburn and Wilmington.

The Wilmington Council on Aging and the Minuteman Homecare Corporation are two of seven community agencies which will share in the planning and operation of the new program.

Others are the Arlington, Burlington, Lexington and Winchester Councils on Aging and the Woburn Council on Social Concern.

The program is a continuation of the Health Center's efforts on behalf of the elderly population. Last fall, a successful workshop entitled "Understanding Your Aging Relative" was held. This, however, was geared for the offspring of the elderly, whereas the Widowed-to-Widowed program will be for the elderly population itself.

People who are in need of the program's services or who wish to volunteer to help may call any of the agency offices listed above as well as the following Mystic Valley offices: Winchester-724-8796; Lexington-981-0890; Woburn-935-8150 and Arlington-641-0970.

Senior notes

Wilmington seniors are reminded to sign up at the Drop-in Center for the Council on Aging sponsored party to be held Wednesday, June 28 from 6:30 to 11 p.m. at K of C Hall on School Street. The evening will include a hot and cold buffet, dancing and lots of fun. There will be no charge to seniors.

The Widowed to Widowed program began training volunteers on Monday. This will be followed by six more weekly meetings by the volunteers involved in the program. Anyone wishing to participate in the service as a volunteer outreach worker is urged to call Pat at the center.

Community Teamwork is beginning its winterization program. This is the right time to begin thinking about preparing the home for next winter. The guidelines for this program are the same as for the fuel assistance program. Call the center for more information.

A light exercise program is held every Monday from 11 a.m. to noon at Wilmington K of K Hall.

Anyone wishing to join the dedicated walkers is urged to call the center. The walkers leave Wilmington Center two or three times a week for an enjoyable morning walking among local parks and beaches.

Mary Harmon celebrates hundredth birthday

There was a birthday celebration last Friday, in a home in Reading, Mary Cary Harmon celebrated her 100th birthday.

A Virginia lady, she is the widow of Dr. Gaius E. Harmon, the founder (among other things) of the Wilmington Board of Health. Over 40 persons were at the retirement home to wish Mary Harmon well. The 100th birthday of the lady finds her well and in full control. She greeted each of her friends by name.

Dr. Gaius Harmon, her husband, was born in the Congregational Parsonage in Wilmington, the son of the Rev. Elijah and Martha Harmon. He lived in Wilmington until he was 14, and then returned to Wilmington after his retirement with his wife, to live in their home which was beside St. Thomas Church, and is now beside the public library.

After getting a degree in medicine, and after study in Germany, Dr. Harmon returned to the United States to study in the first class in public health, taught by Harvard College and M.I.T. There were 15 in the class, and they had the distinction of being the only persons to have their diplomas signed by both the presidents of Harvard, and of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Dr. Harmon taught public health for many years, and served in administrative capacities, in public health, in Chicago and Detroit. After his return he took up the problems of public health in Wilmington. He also took up work in the Congregational Church, and one of the items to be remembered is the Bible class which he conducted for some years, the Gospel according to St. Luke, the physician. It was, everyone noted, not only well researched, but quite appropriate.

Library loses its CETA help

"Service Through Modernization," a federally-funded CETA project at Wilmington's Public Library, came to a close on June 1.

A team of six CETA employees has been working at the library since August, 1977.

They have completed a detailed inventory of the library's entire collection, conducted a re-registration drive of all library borrowers and helped to publish the first issue of the library newsletter.

The valuable contribution made by the CETA staff, said Library Director Philip Meriam, is very much appreciated.

He said it was not known at this time whether or not CETA would continue to fund positions for the library.

"While the loss of CETA support will be felt," said Meriam, "the library will attempt to maintain the standard of service expected by the community."

will be the final curtain so the song goes.

Working with all of you, to me, has been a really wonderful experience, and you have taught me a lot of new and different things that make up the library. I am sure that all the other Ceta workers who worked with me, share the same view.

To the citizens of Wilmington, I can only tell you that you have a beautiful library and its director and staff are very competent in helping you get books to read or assist you in any reference you might need.

Thank you, Dominic DeBenedetto

Counselor Fitzpatrick Patricia Fitzpatrick of Allen Park Drive, Wilmington was one of 48 Colby-Sawyer students chosen to be a student counselor for the 1978-9 academic year. Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Fitzpatrick.

She is a freshman in the Medical Technology program at Colby-Sawyer. Student counselors are chosen each spring for the following year. These women act as advisers to small groups of freshmen, and they are dormitory officers helping the president in the management of the dormitory. Counselors are chosen on the basis of scholarship, human relation skills, responsibility and potential growth.

Visit Melissa-Sue Dot and Len Boyden of Nichols Street, Wilmington have returned from a two and a half week driving trip to Florida, where, in Jacksonville they visited their first grandchild, Melissa Sue, born March 30, to Gale (Boyden) Kennedy and Steven Kennedy.

Later in the visit they drove to Pompano Beach to visit relatives. From there they drove to Tampa, Clearwater, Lakeland, Orlando and Daytona Beach. Before returning home, they again visited Gail, Steve and Melissa for a few days.

Dot and Len were accompanied on their trip by their daughter, Clara of Hyannis.

Fred's friends to say thanks June 16

by Rick Cooke

The friends of former Wilmington High School football coach Fred Bellissimo will honor him with a night June 16 that is being billed as "Thank You Coach Bellissimo 1956-77." The affair is slated for Friday night June 16 at the Sons of Italy Hall on Ballardvale Street. Fred's night gets underway at 7 P.M. after the social hour that starts at 6 P.M.

Tickets are $10 per person and can be purchased by calling chairman Al Cairra at 658-8284, Rico Catalano, 657-7345, Bob Dicey, 658-5239 or the Sons of Italy at 657-4141.

Catalano and Dicey are members of the Bellissimo Committee that includes former WHS assistant coach John Ritchie, Jack Holloway, Mike Cairra, Rocco DePasquale, Jim Randall, Joe Guzzo, Fred Miller, Bob Bruno, Vin Buscanera, Chris DiCecca, Vin Puma and former WHS principal Barney McMahon who will be the toastmaster for the evening.

"We're honoring Fred for his 22 years of dedication to the youth of Wilmington," related Dicey Monday afternoon. It's safe to say the man deserves some tribute after 22 years of dedication and work that went into the care and feeding of a Wilmington football program that became one of the most respected in the state.

Connelly with fantastic shot
Woburn Street School Principal Joe Connelly hit a super shot recently in Wilmington Teachers golf action according to League Commissioner Bob Milley. The teachers play every Tuesday afternoon - and Joe came up with his shot in league play.

"Joe hit an absolutely extraordinary shot in league play," reports Milley. "On the tenth hole at Trull Brook, Connelly dropped his tee shot on the green - a steep, uphill approach with no roll whatsoever. It's noted on the scorecard at 320 yards. From there he putted to get his birdie. I don't believe very many golfers have ever done this," concluded Milley. At least not among the local duffers. Fine job Mr. Principal.

Fred will be honored for his 22 years involvement with the WHS football program at a Sons of Italy dinner June 16.

Girls shine in Northern area
Five Wilmington High girls stood out in the recent Northern Area Meet at Marblehead. Ann Gillis, Janet O'Reilly, Heidi Wiberg, Julie Hancox and Carol Welch finished strong for the young WHS squad that struggled this spring in Merrimack Valley Conference action.

Gillis grabbed a second place in the 440 with a 65.5 time and was the first Wilmington girl ever to score in a state meet. O'Reilly was seventh in her MVC specialty - the javelin, with a heave of 101'4".

The speedy Wiberg came home ninth in the 100 yard dash with a 12 second time while Hancox was 11th in the 880 with a 2:37.6 time. Welch was part of the mile relay team that set a WHS record with a 4:32.2 time that was good enough for eighth place in the Northern Area Meet. Gillis, O'Reilly and Hancox were the other girls who made up the relay squad.

Burke at MCC
Wilmington's Kathy Burke was a member of the Middlesex Community College varsity softball team that finished with an outstanding 8-1 record against community college competition.

The women dropped their opener to Massosett, but came on to beat the University of Lowell's junior varsity twice before going on a six-game tear.

Woods an MVC All-Star - again
Wilmington High secondbaseman Steve Woods was named to the Merrimack Valley Conference All-Star baseball team for the second consecutive spring last week. Steve, headed for West Point, was the Wildcats' most consistent performer this spring out of the lead off position in the batting order.

Woods is an excellent secondbaseman with good range - turning the doubleplay over expertly with shortstop Bill Blaisdell.
Woods, Tewksbury's Mark Morin and Methuen's Joe Grelle, were three of the best MVC secondbasemen to come down the pike in recent years.

WHS winner

Wilmington High sophomore pitcher Susan Rowe held for a 9-8 win in Tewksbury last week.

WHS nips TMHS

The Wilmington High softball squad wound up the 1978 season in fine style last week with a 9-8 win over Tewksbury at the Livingston Street Field.

Cheryl Cushing paced the winning attack with a two run double in the sixth inning that snapped a 6-6 deadlock. Cheryl later scored the winning run on a passed ball.

Coach Bonnie Robert's team and ace pitcher Linda Doherty fell behind 6-3, but the Redwomen came back before a double by Joan Welch in the fifth inning sent two WHS runs across.

Shortstop Sandy Peters paced the home club's attack with a single and a double while Diane Donovan chipped in with a two run single in the fifth frame.

Sophomore Sue Rowe bested Doherty on the mound to give coach Jan Garipay's club its fifth MVC win. Tewksbury finished at 8-6 in the MVC - 11-6 overall.

Bombers nip Barons 13-12

The combined pitching of Cheryl Olson and Bonnie MacEachern led the Blue Bombers to a 13-12 squeaker over the Red Barons last Saturday.

The defensive play outfielders Donna Biose, Karen Ross, Kelly McDonald, Julie Cunningham, and Janet Magliozzi helped the cause while the heavy hitters were Linda Nistico, Janet Magliozzi, Bonnie MacEachern and Cheryl Olson.

S. Craig pitched well for the Red Barons. Their heavy hitters were C. Flaherty and L. Bower.

Wilmington SPORTS

Cats in summer circuit

The Wilmington High School basketball team has an entry in the Tewksbury Summer Basketball League in the hopes of repeating last winter's successful season with some hard roundball work over the summer months.

The Wildcats played in the Tewksbury Livingston Street Court circuit last summer and some of that play payed off in the winning winter.

The WHS entry started off May 28 with a 57-55 overtime loss to Chelmsford. Center Dick Dowd pounded both backboards to finish with 19 points to lead all scorers. Dave Woods chipped in with nine points for Wilmington while the promising Chris Nolan canned 10 in Tewksbury. Klesaris led the Lion attack with 12 points.

The Cats drew a bye last Sunday, but in league action Chelmsford stormed to win number two with a 78-61 romp over Lowell Voke. Tewksbury dumped Masconomet 62-44 behind John McNamara's 16 points and Lowell topped North Reading 56-43.

Chelmsford and Lowell are tied for first place in summer action with 2-0 marks while Tewksbury and Voke are deadlocked at 1-1. North Reading and the Wildcats are both 0-1 with Masco in the cellar at 0-2.

This Sunday (June 11) Wilmington tangles with Voke in the third and final game of the night starting at 9 p.m. Chelmsford takes on Masco in the opener at 6 p.m., followed by the Tewksbury-North Reading tilt at 7:30. Blazers roll over Warriors Gina Rinaldi, Patrice Buckley, Stacey Sargent, Judy Seville, Maureen Fuller, Yvonne Lesko, and Susan Carpenter combined for 26 hits to back the pitching of Lesko and Susan Carpenter as the Blazers crushed the Warriors 18-4 last week.

Kathleen Florio scored four runs while Karen Severhaus and Julia Grassia scored two apiece.

Blazers 6-Green Machine 5
The Green Machine forfeited this game, but in a practice tilt the Blazers came through with a 6-5 win. Home runs were hit by Buckley and Rinaldi. Gina's homer scored in Maureen Bemis and Carpenter. Bemis' double scored Sargent and Lesko. Florio was a defensive standout.

MVC Track Championships

Jones sets high jump record

Host Tewksbury High won five events and junior high jumper Jim Jones smashed the meet record with his 6'6" leap in last Wednesday afternoon's MVC Championship Meet at the TMHS track.

Tewksbury's Bob Pilcher had held the MVC meet mark in the high jump with his effort of 6'5 1/2".

Senior Bob Labadini copped the two mile crown for the second straight spring with his 9:50.3 effort. Another important Tewksbury first went to senior Frank Smolinsky who set a TMHS record in the 330 hurdles with his 39.8 finish.

The other Redmen firsts went to Rick McGillick in the 100 yard dash (10.3) and the 400 relay team of Bill Ashe, McGillick, Jay Petros and Paul Weitz that covered the distance in 45.3.

Frank Smolinsky had some tough luck in the 120 yard hurdles as he was running a strong race before suffering a leg injury while clearing a hurdle. Smolinsky earlier had taken a third in the long jump (19'7").

Where's my horse?

Tewksbury long jumper Frank Smolinsky looks like he's just lost control of a bucking bronco during last week's MVC championship meet at TMHS track. Smolinsky took a third in the event with a leap of 19'7".

Labadini completes triple crown

Robert Labadini, a senior TMHS trackman bound for Brandeis University this fall, completed the triple crown this past week by placing in the Massachusetts State Class "B" Track & Field Championship Meet at Andover.

Labadini had won the Massachusetts State Coaches State Cross Country Championship Meet at White Stadium this past fall and secured a scoring place in the two mile run in the Indoor State Meet at Reading High School this past winter. Labadini's best marks include a 4:29 and a 9:38 two mile for Coach Mike Daley's TMHS track team.

Jim Jones continued his super jumping after winning everything indoors including: State Class "B" title, M.V.C. Title, and Northern Area title.

Jones set a new Tewksbury record in the high jump with a 6'6 1/2" jump against Wilmington for the new outdoor record at Tewksbury. Frank Smolinsky added to his 1977 Indoor State 45 yard hurdle string by scoring in the intermediate 330 hurdles in a super time of 40.8 seconds.

Labadini, Jones and Smolinsky will advance to the All State Meet where they may advance to the New England Track & Field Championships. In addition to State meet honors Labadini (two mile), Jones (high jump), and Dan Bradley (discus) have placed in the Northern Area Track & Field Championship meet at Lawrence Stadium. Bradley has a 150'8" discus heave to his credit this season and has a perfect dual meet record, having won in every meet this season.

Ray Maillet picked up a fourth place in the two mile while fifth spots went to Jones in the 120 hurdles (15.9), Pat Puzo in the javelin (168'10") - a school record, Dan Bradley in the shot put (47'5") and Jay Petros in both the 220 (27.6) and long jump (19'6 1/2"). Puzo also grabbed a sixth spot with his 38'11" effort in the triple jump.

No team scores were kept, but as expected Methuen, Andover and Chelmsford came with some of the best track athletes in the state.

One of the most outstanding individual performances was turned in by Wilmington freshman Matt Phillips who won the javelin with his heave of 180'1". What is so impressive about Matt's mark is that he just missed the Wilmington record of 183'9" in only his fifth time in competition.

Family Day

This Saturday has been designated as Family Day for the Tewksbury Soccer program. All parents are invited to watch the locals tangle with Medford at 3:30 p.m. on the Junior High Field.

Fudge wins

Tewksbury's Kim Fudge won the two mile run in last Wednesday's MVC Girls Track Championships at Andover with a time of 12:31.8. Also scoring for coach Gerry Rideout's girls was Denise Zabawa in the javelin with a strong 115'6" toss for second place.

Lisa Gaines was a strong second in the two mile at 12:45.5 while Patty Barlow grabbed a third in the half mile at 2:30.9 and a sixth in the javelin at 100'9". Nancy Smith also placed sixth with a 6:04.2 effort in the mile. Zabawa was a fifth place finisher with a 31'8 1/4" toss in the shot put.

Basketball

The Tewksbury Recreation Basketball Summer League for girls and women will hold registration Saturday, June 17, from 9 a.m. to noon at the Tewksbury Youth Center.

A morning program for girls ages 12 through 16 will consist of instruction on basketball skills, assigned teams, coaching and competitive league games. At night an organized women's league will be offered ages 16 and older, including all interscholastic athletes. Questions concerning the program can be answered at registration - June 17.

Easy pickins'

It was a nice day at the beach for the Tewksbury AA team Sunday afternoon as they rolled over Woburn 6-1 at the Junior High field.

B' team clinches Division III title

Tewksbury's Recreation B soccer team clinched first place in Division III of the Middlesex League with a 4-0 blanking of Wakefield last weekend. The under 14 year olds now face two tests in local soccer action, the first coming tonight (June 7) when they tangle with Wilmington.

The B' boys will also be a Division III representative in the Middlesex County playoffs when they open against Concord II June 13 at a site to be named later. The winner of this game will play the Division I champ that has yet to be decided.

Tewksbury took control early in the Wakefield game with the best local soccer of the season. Bryan Flynn got the Redmen on the scoreboard in the first minute of play with help from George Simas, Chris Whalen and Scott Andrade.

Charlie Santos gave Tewksbury a 2-0 lead when he pocketed his specialty - the corner kick. Simas helped make it 3-0 as he beat a Wakefield halfback to the ball and took off down the wing. George then passed to wingman Whalen who found Andrade at the corner of the net where Scott canned his second goal to give Tewksbury a 3-0 gap.

Bobby DeGregorio scored Tewksbury's final goal when Willie Byers beat the Wakefield goalie to the ball and fired the pass to the hustling DeGregorio.

Tewksbury sports a 9-0-0 record going into this week's important action. The local booters have outscored opponents by a whopping 40-3 margin.

AA team rips Woburn
The AA team breezed past Woburn 6-1 Sunday afternoon at the Junior High field with Bob Whalen, Tommy Flynn, John Dunlevy, Jack Vultaggio, Rick Smith and Jim Maher scoring goals.

Bob Dascoli, Ron Wallace, Rick Catanzaro and Ha Sok Chun were standouts for Tewksbury.

Sunday the AA team follows the A club with a 3 p.m. start against Bedford in the final weekend of soccer at the Junior High.

B team tops

Watertown 5-1

The B team rolled by Watertown in recent league action as goals by Pat Tremlett, Byers and Santos gave the team a 3-0 halftime cushion.

Bryan Flynn fed Willie Byers for the first goals of the second half and Tewksbury wrapped up the scoring and the game as Jerry Horgan finished off a nice play started by Tom Toomey and Steve Fink.

AA team explodes

The AA team exploded for 11 goals - six coming in the first half enroute to an 11-0 rout of an undermanned Concord team in recent action.

Smith led the attack with three goals while Vultaggio and Mike DiGiorgio pocketed a pair.

Other Tewksbury goals were scored by Maher, Flynn, Whalen and Wallace.

Girl Scouts plan theater party

The musical comedy "Bye, Bye Birdie" has been selected by the Merrimack River Girl Scout Council for a theater party to be held on June 28.

The event will take place at the Town and Country Playhouse in Salem, N.H. Its objective is to raise funds to help support the Council's programs for the more than 9,000 registered Girl Scouts in this area.

Town & Country Playhouse has gained a first-rate reputation during the past eight years for its summer stock productions which feature professional casts.

The Girl Scout theater party has been planned for the opening night of the 1978 season.

The performance will be followed by a coffee hour in the lobby of the auditorium for the audience and the cast. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

The cost for the entire evening will be $5 per person. For ticket information, call 475-4511 before June 15. Everyone, whether involved in Scouting or not, is invited to participate in the event.

Funds raised by the sale of tickets will help to benefit the Council's three day camps, located in Andover, Boxford and Tyngsboro.; its resident camp in Pelham, N.H. as well as various training sessions, special trips, conferences and camping outings.

Sweetheart Plastics captures three awards

The Public Relations staff of Sweetheart Plastics is walking away with all the prizes this year, or so it would seem.

In the areas of employee communications and special print media, Sweetheart has chalked up three awards.

A program called "Sweetheart Superstar" was letter

Editor,
Town Crier

"Our" representative to the Legislature and "our" Board of Selectmen, once elected, should be responsible to the welfare of the majority of the people and to the welfare of the Town as a whole.

The public hearing on the Route 129 bypass, held on May 23rd, 1978, is another example of a loud, organized minority group convincing public officials that they speak for the good of the entire community.

Every statement of the "no-build" proponents, however ludicrous, was greeted with loud applause. The statements of the representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and the League of Women Voters favoring some kind of a bypass were almost apologetic. Only one person, the representative of the Planning Board, favoring a bypass, mentioned that "it is for the good of the town."

This hearing was supposed to be the culmination of a long series of environmental hearings, not an opinion poll. To do nothing, after a "dozen years" and large expenditures of the taxpayers' money is simply stupid.

On March 23rd, 1978 the undersigned sent a letter to the Board of Selectmen calling for attention to the uncontrolled, heavy traffic on his street, to the lack of speed limit signs, to the lack of legal limitation of heavy trucking, and to the excessive violation of the General Laws pertaining to the use of proper mufflers to control unreasonable noise.

Certainly other residents of through streets must have experienced the excessive speed, noise, use of heavy trucks, broken glass, litter, dust and fumes resulting from uncontrolled traffic.

The use of residential streets as short cuts to avoid the mess on Main Street is obvious. The 129 bypass would certainly help to alleviate this situation, however, the problem still exists in other areas of the town.

The overall flow of traffic in the town can be improved, legal restrictions can be imposed and the laws can be enforced. Reasonable complaints from enough people just might convince the selectmen to do SOMETHING.

Arnold C. Blake

Arnold Blake, retired civil engineer and former water commissioner of Wilmington has some valid points. Middlesex Avenue, to which he points, is one of several streets that are suffering from the use of residential streets by traffic that should be using the 129 bypass.

The town has, so far spent no money for the Middlesex Avenue problems. It spent $135 thousand for a sidewalk, and a lot of money for special policemen on Glen Road, this too, a result of the failure to build a 129 bypass.

Blake's comments about nothing being done and the spending of money being stupid are worthy of notice.

named winner of the Public Relations Society of America's Silver Anvil Award for the most outstanding employee communications program of 1977.

The program rewarded employees of the Wilmington plant for their accomplishments in the areas of scrap reduction, safety, attendance and productivity improvement. It was selected as the best of more than 300 entries.

Sweetheart was also named a winner in the category of Employee Communications by the Publicity Club of Boston at its 10th annual Bell Ringer Awards Dinner held last month.

The company was one of five New England firms single-ed out for recognition of outstanding achievement in the field of public relations.

In addition, three Sweetheart employees, Elizabeth D. Howe, Shayna Loeffler and Walter Young, have been awarded the prestigious Gold Quill Award of Excellence and Award of Merit by the International Association of Business Communicators.

They were cited for design in the special print media category and the overall quality of a special communication program.

More than 2,000 entries were received this year by IABC, a professional organization for more than 4,500 business communicators.

Woburn Street School attends Sox game

A family night out at the Red Sox Game was enjoyed last week by 466 youngsters and parents from the Woburn Street School.

Six busloads of Wilmington fans made the trek to Fenway Park to watch the Sox blank the Toronto Blue Jays 4-0.

Four sections of seats were reserved for them behind the first base line. Even the weatherman cooperated with a perfect evening described by the school's principal Joseph Connolly as "shirt-sleeve weather."

The event was the second family night out sponsored by the school this year. The first, a trip to Boston to watch a performance of the Boston Ballet Company, was also well attended.

This Saturday, the school will hold its annual Field Day from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. on the school grounds. Nearly 1,000 people usually attend the outing, which features games, races, a cook-out lunch and what is billed as "the world's largest egg toss" across the entire length of the athletic field.

Teacher publishes article on blood coagulation

Two former Wilmington High School students, Gale Smith and Patricia Carta, have assisted Science Teacher Richard W. Fardy with research for his recently published article detailing a simplified process for testing blood clotting time.

Fardy's article entitled "Demonstrating Hemostasis with a Student-Designed Prothrombin Time Test," was published in the American Biology Teacher.

It demonstrated how quickly blood can clot using whole blood instead of plasma, a method that eliminates the need for very sophisticated equipment.

Fardy has taught at Wilmington High School for the past 13 years. He has had other articles published in the past.

The Melrose Savings Bank recently presented a ten-speed bicycle to Paul Brokaw. The bicycle was the prize in the bank's promotion of its Melbank 24 hour banking machine. Brokaw, the director of product planning for Analog Devices Semiconductor, is shown with Melbank Manager and Assistant Treasurer C. Nicki Johnson.

Kindergarten students in Room A-1 at the Shawheen School in Wilmington have been learning about flying, airlines style. Their teacher, Mrs. Paula Beaulieu, has assigned members of the class to different tasks as crew and passengers.

Above, soaring in the cardboard 747 are Pilot Marc Rowe, at right, and Co-Pilot Judi Demos. In the rear of the plane are passengers Erica Walton and Kevin McCoy. Stewardess Terry Godfrey is between Mrs. Beaulieu and the plane.

Below, passengers McCoy and Walton buy their tickets from Julie Biondo. Others in the crew include Aircraft Technician Dwight Pembroke and Baggage Carrier David Magee.

The plane was constructed by members of the morning kindergarten class, Pam Budd, Tracy Hill and Michael Kurland.

LWV fund raising campaign

As a part of their finance drive this year, members of the Wilmington League of Women Voters will be personally calling on local businesses and interested citizens in the next few weeks.

Last month the League sent out letters asking for financial support.

The purpose of these visits will be to explain how contributions are used to benefit the community and to answer any questions about the organization.

Anyone who wishes to make a contribution may do so by sending it to the League of Women Voters in care of Barbara Welton, 194 Woburn St., Wilmington.

Student Government, Candidates' Night, Referendum and Warrant Nights, a Court Reform Workshop with Archibald Cox, Legislative Open Houses and the "Know your Town" booklets are just some of the many activities sponsored by the League of Women Voters in Wilmington.

As a grass-roots organization the League depends on the financial support of businesses and concerned citizens in the community to help subsidize such activities. Contributions in the past have also made possible the League's role in bringing a masterplan, the library facility and a recreational director to the town. The League has also worked for the preservation of wetlands in Wilmington.
